About

Blackboard is an extension of the classroom online. Your Blackboard account will provide access to communication from instructors and course content, such as course outlines or assignments. Please note that not all courses will have the same design in Blackboard, as instructors will modify the course to meet their needs.

Course Overview

1. You will first need to log in to your Blackboard account. For more information on logging in to your account, please see our how to guide on logging in to Blackboard. When you log you in to your blackboard account it will open to your dashboard.

On the right hand side, under My Courses, you will see a list of the courses that you are enrolled in. To enter the course, click on the course name/ course code. This will open the course introduction page.

On the left hand side of the screen you will see the course menu. This is divided in to three sections, About This Course, Content and Assessments, and Communication.

About This Course

Under About This Course you will find the following pages:

Introduction: Here you will often have a brief overview of the course, an introduction of the instructor or other information that the instructor feels is important that all students have access to.

Blackboard Tutorial: Here you will find information on how to use blackboard and a link to Lynda.com. For more information about accessing Lynda.com, please see our How to guide on Lynda.com.

And Course Information: This page will include course outlines and appendix as needed for the course. Any other documents that the instructor feels are necessary for all students to complete the course may also be placed here.

Content and Assessments

Under Content and Assessments you will find the following pages:

Weekly Notes: will contain information about each week of the course. This will include PowerPoint slide, handouts, suggested readings, and any other materials that the instructor selects to use during the course.

Assignments: will contain online assignment submissions. You will be able to either submit a saved document or type a document directly in the submission box. Please remember to follow the instructions outlined by your instructor as to how they would like to receive the submission.

Blackboard Dashboard

Quizzes: will contain online quizzes. Please pay special attention to the number of attempts for each quiz and the time you are (able to stay) active (in the quiz?). If your Blackboard page remains idle for more than 30 minutes, you will lose any unsaved data and may not be able to restart the quiz.

Discussion Board: will be a continuation of classroom discussions online. Here you will need to start a thread to begin a conversation, and then you and other students will be able to comment back to each other. The instructor may have guided discussions where there is a topic to be discussed or there may be an open forum to discuss any topic mentioned in the course.

Communication

Announcements: Here you will be able to see any announcements that have been sent out related to this course. This will typically be sent out by the instructor and may include reminders, class cancellations, or any other important information.

Email: Here you will be able to send emails to other members of the course. Depending on the option selected, you will be able to send to the whole class, selected members of the class, and the instructor. Please note the email will be sent from your student email account and any reply will be received at your student email account.

My Grades: Here you will be able to see your grades throughout the semester. Please note if you are not able to see all of your graded work, select ALL at the top of the screen. Additionally, final marks are not posted to Blackboard. Final marks for a course will be posted to Slc.me under the Grades icon at the end of the term.

Additional content: Panopto

Some courses will also have access to Panopto, a video sharing software. This will display as Panopto Recordings at the bottom of the Course menu. Panopto will allow you to view videos created by the instructor or will allow you to create videos that can be submitted to your instructor. For more information about Panopto, please see our how to guides on Panopto.

Panopto videos can also be added to an assignment using the Mash Ups tool. For instructions, please see our How to Guide on Submitting a video in Panopto.
