LAST NAME: _____

FIRST NAME: _____

OCAS # _____

STUDENT # _____

Applicants to the Bachelor of Science in Nursing or Bachelor of Business Administration program must provide evidence of their full academic history, including all institutions attended.

Your application will not be reviewed until all full disclosure requirements are complete:

- signed form
- official transcripts
- proof of current course enrollment

Program eligibility

Your most recent post-secondary education must meet a minimum standard (overall average of 70% or a 2.80 GPA) and you must be in good academic standing with your last college or university to be considered for entry.

Before classes begin

If you receive an offer of admission and the College learns that you did not fully disclose all post-secondary education or a final transcript reveals that you do not meet the minimum standard, the College can revoke your offer of admission.

After classes begin

If you become a student and the College learns that you did not fully disclose all post-secondary education, or a final transcript reveals that you do not meet the minimum standard, the College can remove you from the program.

- I have never attended college or university.
